BOOTS AS THEY OUGHT TO BE.
CHARLES DOWNES,
At the New Round.
That Boots should be made the shape of the feet seems to be a plain affair of common sense, but one that has not been heeded ; hence the distorted toes, growing-in toe-nails, corns, bunions, &c., not certainly natural, but self-inflicted ills. We for our lasts to the shape of our Customers' feet, so that from the first day our Boots can be worn with perfect ease.

This Institution has supported Girls of good character has been in existence for twenty-five years, and has rescued upwards of 1,000 from all the perils of poverty, and frequently from all the situations of moral instability, to which they were enabled to earn an honest and comfortable livelihood.
The object of this Institution is to preserve from ruin innocent and inexperienced Females, whom sudden bereavement, or other pecuniary calamities, may cast unprotected on the world.
The Home is ever open to receive such helpless ones, sisthe them and train them, while their mental powers last, for the life will permit, of the things of God and general usefulness. The committee have received from time to time the most pleasing testimony of the genuine piety and good conduct of those who have passed under their care.
They therefore trust the Public will generously second their endeavours, and extend to the Institution the hearty support which it deserves, and is needed of, to enable it to act efficiently.
Contributions, by collection, or otherwise, will be thankfully received by the following :—Rev. A. Lee, M.A., Mrs. Quaile, Hon. Secretaries; by any Member of the Committee; by the Rev. Chaplain of the Established Church in Dublin ; by Messrs. LaTouche, Bankers ; or the Matron, at the Institution, at Charlemont-street.

The Committee, gratefully acknowledging the steady and generous support with which the Lamplight Institution for penitent females from all parts of the country has been hitherto maintained, anxiously desire to make more widely known its urgent and increasing claims on Christian benevolence. During the past twelve months ten females have been sent to respectable situations in the Colonies, four more are preparing to emigrate, three have been restored to their friends, and three provided with places in their own country. The Report for 1864, with Subscriptions and Contributions, Letters from Emigrants, &c., is now printed, and can be had on application. The urgent applications for admission are numerous, and the necessary expenditure is constant. Contributions and this year's Subscriptions are thankfully solicited.
Orders for the Laundry and Workroom are requested. The van calls twice weekly on all Parishes of these branches, and every attention is given to ensure punctuality, good work, and satisfaction.
Contributions will be received by any Member of the Committee ; by Messrs. Ball, Bankers, Henry-street ; at the Institution, Ball's-bridge ; by Mr. Herbert, 117 Grafton-street ; Mr. W. F. THE NEW STREET LAMP
(GRIEG'S PATENT),
We beg leave to call the attention of the Public to our SACKVILLE LANTERN,
Which has been erected opposite our Establishment. Its advantages are in contradistinction to the present Lamps of the City—no currency of air, no panes of glass ; a steady light, and therefore less liable to get out (except when the entire wind is rushing in a hurricane), having less metal work about it than any lamp extant.
